By WALTER M. BARRETT

Maybe you are opposed to Raymond L. Haight as a candidate for governor, or maybe you are for him, but nevertheless you cannot help but admire his courage and certainly we must concede that he is not forsaking the rural areas in his itinerary.

Speaking of candidates, the primary election is only a scant three weeks in the future. It is always a shame that only one man can be elected to each office when there are so many able men in the races. There will be many disappointed hopefuls three weeks from now and they are going to regret all the hard work they have been put to in the fight which gained them nothing. Of course there is the other side—the winners—but who ever thinks of them with regrets.

Now with next year's crop of trout basking and fattening in the San Francisco Flycasting Club's modern rearing ponds, it is time for all good men to come to the aid of their community. We are going to have to pay our share for feeding and raising that crop of trout. The money isn't going to drop from the sky. We are going to have to dig down and get it to the extent of more than $400. That is a trivial sum if everyone would pay his share, but this can not be expected. As usual the minority will do the paying, but it is this minority that keeps the town going in other ways, so it will be nothing unusual or foreign. We hope this sum will be over-subscribed and we hope that each one will pay his share in this program, one of the most important programs this community has.

Believe it or not there is only one more week of school vacation. How time flies.

Truckee's little work relief program is very likely to fold up this week unless subscriptions to keep it going are forthcoming soon. The project is by now familiar to all and while you may not be in sympathy with all the phases, you cannot doubt its value to the community.

Work Progressing On Buildings At Resident Subdivision Locally

Auto Court, Dwellings Are Nearing Completion On Site

Crews are busy at the Gateway Park subdivision erecting a series of tourist cabins for the owner, R. Joseph of Truckee. Work has been completed on the modern service station and one dwelling, being erected by Joseph on the north side of the highway has been completed.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Barrick in the subdivision just south of the highway is nearing completion and other signs of activity and progress are in evidence.

The modern auto court and cabins being erected by Joseph will be ready this fall. It is planned to make each of the series modern in every detail.

BAER MAKES AIR FLIGHT TO BEDSIDE OF MOTHER IN VAIN

The airplane flight of Max Baer, former world's heavyweight boxing champion from his training quarters at Lake Tahoe to the bedside of his dying mother where he donated 500 cubic centimeters of blood to save her life proved futile.

Mrs. Dora Baer, 60, died in an Oakland hospital on Sunday after an illness of several months.

More Than 250 Are Aided With Relief Project

Funds Being Raised Here To Continue Work If Possible

WORK IS PROGRESSING

Response To Letters From Chamber Slow As Money Needed

Although work on Truckee's Little Relief Project is still progressing and a considerable amount of work is being accomplished, the fund set aside for the program is depleted.

Letters sent out to interested parties by the Chamber of Commerce seeking financial aid, have met with discouraging results and only a small sum has been received.

It has been indicated that unless further contributions are received this week the work will be suspended. There have been more than 250 transients assisted in the program during the past three weeks and work at the winter sports field has gone forward rapidly.

Hobart Firm Reported To Have Signed Contract With CIO Union Here

It was announced here this week that Joseph Landsburg, official of the Los Angeles Steel and Iron company of Los Angeles, which recently purchased the remains of Hobart Mills for the purpose of wrecking the old town, had signed a contract with the CIO and agreed to pay the prevailing wage scale, as asked by the union's delegation.

In the meantime Landsburg is going forward with plans to dispose of the sturdy structures on the property to the government for a conservation camp or to private interests as a resort town.

SEAWELL HAS HIGH ENDORSEMENTS IN POLITICAL FIGHT

Backed by a strong list of endorsements, Senator J. L. Seawell, candidate for Lieutenant-Governor, this week started a final tour of California that already has taken him into every community in the state.

"Jerry Seawell is entering the final stages of the campaign with more substantial endorsements than any other candidate for Lieutenant-Governor," according to John T. McCarthy, state campaign director.

"His splendid record as state senator has resulted in enthusiastic support from labor, business and political groups in every section of the state."

Among his 41 endorsements were those of the California State Federation of Labor, Nevada County Republican Assembly, Placer County Republican Assembly and the Good Government League of San Francisco.

The level of Lake Tahoe is dropping slowly, the decrease being approximately .01 of a foot a day, the rate of withdrawal through the outlet gates at the head of the Truckee river was increased to 310 second feet on Saturday to maintain the steady flow in the river.

More water will be withdrawn as the need for irrigation and other purposes increases.

The level, early Saturday night, was set at 6228.84 feet above sea level.

In the region obtaining water from this source, the water situation is regarded as the best in recent years.

Express Pickup And Delivery Is Used by Officer

The pickup and delivery service of the local Railway Express is not new to the Truckee patrons, but Manager Tom Dolley had an unusual order this week when he was summoned by Constable William Bottcher to pickup and deliver a strange package.

It seems an itinerant imbibed well but not wisely and literally "passed out" en route to the local bastille under the guidance of the constable.

It was then that the officer resorted to the express for aid and the temporarily paralyzed stranger was carted to the jail via Railway Express.

Dolley said he was unable to find a rate in his book for the consignment so has taken the matter under advisement.

"Packages don't come too tough for us," Dolley declared.

Fair Group Outlines Plan For County Exhibit For October 21 to 23

The 17th agricultural district directors met in the Chamber of Commerce rooms in Grass Valley on Monday evening, August 8, where they discussed plans to hold an agricultural fair and horse show on October 21 and 22 in the Veterans' Memorial Hall and adjoining lots in Grass Valley.

Individuals from domestic science classes as well as housewives from all over the county are urged to enter the results of their culinary skill. Livestock, fowl and all county raised articles coming under the agricultural heading as well as natural resources are to be on display.

Successful contestants will be given awards for their entries.

C. Edmunds, the director from Truckee, is in charge of the recreational exhibit for this part of the district to be viewed by visitors at the exhibition.

Other directors of the district named by Governor Frank F. Merriam who chose the site and are making preliminary arrangements include Harry Speiss, Thomas Mulcahy, C. J. Rolph, Harry Cox, U. S. Johnson, Vernon Stoll and Eben Smart.

Fish Move Into Club Tanks As Agreement Made

175,000 Baby Trout Feeding For Next Season's River Crop

FUNDS BEING SECURED

$400 Required from Truckee To Feed Fry For Streams

Truckee's 1939 crop of trout was to have been placed in the San Francisco Flycasting Club's rearing ponds this week—175,000 strong.

These thousands of rainbow fry will be fattened and cared for expertly by E. H. Hommon for the next two months and then released into the Truckee river to provide increased sport for the hundreds of nimrods who frequent local streams annually during the fishing season.

An equal number was planted last fall and the results, despite high water, illegal fishing and other adverse conditions, speak for themselves in the excellent angling enjoyed by sportsmen in this locality.

Truckee's share for the feeding and care of these fish this year has been tentatively fixed at $400. This, of course, does not indicate the actual cost, but it does pay for half the feeding, the stipulation made by the club which provides the tanks, caretakers, equipment and incidentals.

This money is being raised through subscription. Already more than $100 has been raised, but the balance must be paid in the near future and those interested in the project are urged to contact some member of the committee and help make up this difference.

The Truckee river and surrounding streams has long been the mecca of fishermen and this is one of the few remaining good trout streams in the state. This is true only because of the feeding and planting program. In other streams, once famous for their trout, where nature and illegal fishermen have been allowed to take their course, the results are pitiful. It is safe to assume that if the feeding and planting program is discontinued the Truckee will go the way of other neglected streams.

THEY VOTE — WE TOTE

"California is rapidly becoming the dumping ground for the poor of the nation, and something has to be done about it!"

Thus bluntly asserting a critical situation, the California Citizens' Association has embarked upon a concerted state-wide drive to hammer home a reasonable and urgent demand—that Federal relief agencies should provide for intelligent labor at its points of origin.

At the rate of 7000 a month, refugees have been, and are, streaming into this state from the drought areas. Our relief standards are high, our pensions are tempting, and California is still a charmed word.

That is flattering, but not comforting, as it becomes more apparent that the 221,000 who have entered our state in the last 30 months may actually hold the balance of power in the coming primary and general elections.

The opportunity to fulfill resident requirements and enjoy the vote is no idle privilege in a state having our liberal bounties. It is a passkey to El Dorado for the jobless, but it is the other Californians who will foot the bill for measures leading to costly expenditures.

In view of current efforts to establish migrant refugees here, supported by Federal jobs, citizens have a right to demand, "If the Federal government can support them in California, why not in their home state?"

That demand, we hope, will be answered promptly and justly.

CONQUEST

The Hawaii Clipper will no longer wing its way over more than one-third of the earth's circumference, linking California with China's coast, but the new sky routes its sister ships pioneered will remain.

These new caravan routes of the sky spanning the Pacific are only in their infancy.

The records held by the clippers in this trans-oceanic service is one of the best proofs we have that tomorrow will bring even greater development on these skyways. 'Til the hour when the Hawaii Clipper sent out its last "All's well" message, to vanish one minute later, the fleet-winged ships had flown 2,000,000 miles in regular scheduled operations without a single mishap!

The loss of the Hawaii Clipper and her passengers and crew is a tragic milestone in the history of trans-Pacific aviation, but not an epitaph. Man's conquest of space has only begun.

We urge you to carefully study the lists on page 4, 5 and seven to decide who you wish to vote for in the primary election and where you go to do it.

Two Are Injured In Mishap Sunday At Tahoe Regatta

CHAMBER'S LODGE, August 11—Tragedy marred the Tahoe Yacht Club's boat races on Sunday when Lou Fageol and his mechanic, Joe Lucas, both residents of San Marino, were thrown violently from their speeding 800 HP racer "So-Long" which evidently broke a rudder, reared into the air and turned over, pinning the men momentarily beneath it. It floated, half filled with water, on the surface for about five minutes and then sank to the lake's bottom 30 feet below.

The speedy racer had already been conceded the free-for-all champion race by the experts and was about 150 feet from the judges' stand at the time of the accident.

Hundreds watched as motor craft sped swiftly to the rescue, the So-Long appearing to be sinking rapidly. On Monday it was reported Lucas should be in line for a hero medal, as Fageol was reported to have been unconscious when the boat went over, his mechanic, painfully injured himself, managing to pull him from under the racer and hold onto him until help arrived. Both men were in serious condition when they reached the boat landing and were taken at once into the hotel where an emergency hospital ward was improvised and Dr. C. E. Pedersen summoned. The doctor's report described the men's injuries as follows: Fageol—internal injuries of spleen or kidneys, fracture of lower ribs, left side; numerous lacerations of hands, contusions of arms, chest and right leg. Lucas—possible fracture of neck, left side, lacerations, possible fracture of vertebrae and ribs. An ambulance was summoned from Reno and the men taken to St. Mary's hospital.

Weather was perfect for the races and thousands were on hand to enjoy the thrills which perfectly smooth water afforded.

The Stephens race went to Fordon Lacy of Stockton in his entry Lady Constance II, with J. Carroll Skinner boat, Florence M., piloted by his niece, little 11 year old Adrian Roberts of San Francisco, a close second. Lacy's time was three minutes, 26 seconds, the Florence M's three minutes 27 seconds.

The 300 HP event went to Stanley Dollar Jr.'s Baby Skipalong in eight minutes, 33 seconds. Second was Henry Kaiser's Lemmo Gifford and third E. L. Oliver's new twin motored Gar, Hey There III.

The 225 HP race was won by Charles Townsend's Kanigo Too in 10 minutes, 11 seconds; second T. E. Anderson's TEA and third Stanley Dollar's Wychway.

The championship free for all in the absence of Dollar's Mercury which broke an oil pump on Saturday eliminating it from competition, went to Kaiser's Hornet in 11 minutes and 35 seconds. This boat was recently overhauled with new engines and made a beautiful showing Sunday.

day. Dollar's Baby Skipalong was second and C. B. Hanson's Spirit of Reno third.

The Chamber's Lodge course was surveyed by Judge George Bliss of Tahoe City Saturday making all times recorded absolutely correct. It is said to be the only inland course to have been surveyed. Dave Chambers was host Saturday at his lodge to members of the Tahoe Yacht Club.

The relay race went to the yellow team, consisting of Skinner's Florence M., Kaiser's Jr. III, Dollar's Skip Along and Anderson's TEA. The blue team was composed of George R. Keast's Bob-Bill, Townsend's Kanigo Too and Randolph C. Walker's Ranjac II; the green team comprised Gordon Lacy's Constance II, Anderson's TEA and Oliver's Hey There; the white team S. W. Towne's Whizalong and Dollar's boat 75 or the Wychway which ran two laps.

The bang and go back novelty number went to Walker's Ranjac II, with Townsend's Kanigo Too second and Kaiser's Jr. III third.

The handicap race was won by Dollar's Wychway, Skinner's Florence M and Townsend's Kanigo Too.

Commodore Henry Kaiser, Sr., made the presentation of trophies at the judges stand following the races and besides the regular awards, Henry Kaiser, Jr., was presented with the Commodore cup for having won the highest number of points on races during the season.

Stanley Dollar, Jr., enlivened the day when he slipped from his Wychway while making an examination of the boat and fell in the water. He swam about until picked up.

BABY GIRL BORN TO MR. & MRS. MADEROS

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. John Maderos (she is the former Katie Bacchi) were pleased to learn that a little daughter was born to the couple on Friday in the Mercy Hospital, Sacramento. Lawson Lauded By Editor For Work Aiding Progress

(By JOHN M. LEE in the North Sacramento Journal).

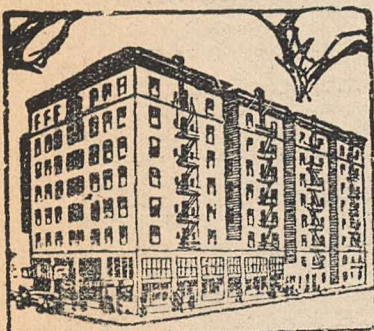

If the pioneers of North Sacramento were to offer a prize to the person who has been the most valuable citizen in the growth of the community, that prize would go to John S. Lawson. . . He came to North Sacramento before it was an incorporated area, before there was gas, before there were any booster or service clubs; in fact, he established a plumbing establishment here while Sacramento was just a wide spot on the highway to Auburn. . . He didn't just establish himself as another spoke in the wheel of progress, but, instead, became the hub by which everything of interest to the progress of this section hinged around him. . . He might be compared with the man who is the "sparkplug" on a football team; as long as he is in the game the team has fire and forges ahead. . . Looking back in the early twenties we see Jack Lawson leading the fight to replace the old wooden trestle between this section and the city of Sacramento with a modern highway, and again in the battle to replace the old kerosene stoves with modern gas. Both of these fights were won, giving this section the first step toward a modern community. The first chamber of commerce was headed by him, in fact, he was one of its founders. He organized and presided over the Exchange club, which died a natural death after he left here to build a summer lodge near Lake Tahoe. Interested in flying, he was president of the Sacramento Aviation Club; he worked on the plan to establish a municipal airport in the city of Sacramento now located on Freepoint boulevard. Believing in publicity for the community he instigated, sponsored and put over two community fairs which advertised North Sacramento area throughout the state. His politics are Republican and while

GOVERNOR MERRIAM BREAKS GROUND FOR 1939 EXPOSITION PRESS BUILDING

In the presence of a representative group of newspapermen and exposition officials, Governor Merriam broke ground on the site of the Golden Gate International Exposition Press Building on Treasure Island. Costing $50,000 the structure will be the headquarters for newspapermen from all parts of the world who will handle exposition news. The Chief Executive is shown at the tractor helm with Mayor Rossi of San Francisco (left) and Mayor McCracken of Oakland.

ATTACKS OPPONENTS

"Deliberate demagogues" was the charge hurled today by Herbert C. Legg, Democratic candidate for governor, at three of his opponents who propose that California homes valued at $3,000 be exempted from all tax. "A family owning a $3,001 home would pay double its present taxes—a family owning a $3,000 home would pay nothing," Legg said.

here he was elected to the county central committee with the largest vote ever cast for an individual. Now he is candidate for the assembly from the sixth district, and if the people of that section are aware of only one quarter of his activities and accomplishments, they will elect him in the primary. North Sacramento's loss is the sixth district's gain.

TAHOE OFFICER NAB ACCUSED FORGER FOR BAY OFFICERS

TAHOE CITY, August 11—Constable Harry Johanson of Tahoe won another feather in his cap on Monday when without even the most meager of descriptions he located and arrested a man sought for months by Sacramento and San Francisco police for forgery. He had his name only.

Notified on Monday evening about 7:30 p.m. by Sheriff Gum of Auburn that a man using the name of Jerry Hunt had placed a call to San Francisco two days previously, Johanson and Patrolman Gene Walker went to Brockway from where the call was placed and made inquiries. It was only a short time until they had a line on Hunt, with description and all. Asking where the suspect was, they were told he was taking a party to the train that evening. Playing a hunch the two officers went to the Tavern depot where a close check was made on all Packards arriving. Finally the party arrived, Johanson stepped up and asked Hunt his identity. He admitted it readily and asked to be permitted to continue his obligations as chauffeur until the train had departed. This was permitted and he was taken into custody at once. At 1 a.m. Tuesday morning Johanson and his prisoner arrived at the Auburn jail.

THURMAN VISITS TRUCKEE FRIENDS

Allen G. (Scoop) Thurman, Colfax publisher and candidate for the assembly from this district, visited for a short time in Truckee last week. Thurman has been one of the most active campaigners in the various contests having to cover ten counties to meet those whom he hopes to represent in the state assembly. He is covering the field alone and trying to meet as many of the voters as humanly possible. He expects to return to Truckee again in the near future.

Thurman has long been a resident of this district and as a progressive, alert publisher has familiarized himself with the needs of the district.

While the district he hopes to serve is one of the largest in the state, Thurman is capable of handling the situation and has the support of both major parties.

Holmes Solicits

Your Support At Polls August 30

(By ANDY HOLMES)

Because it is virtually impossible for me to meet and talk to each one of the voters in Nevada County personally, I am taking this method of asking your support at the Primary Election on August 30, at which I am a candidate for the office of Coroner.

To the average layman, the duties of the coroner may not seem of great importance, and yet there are many things which are vitally important and which should be handled by a man of experience and thorough knowledge in his work. I believe none can question my ability to discharge these duties.

For the past 25 years I have been a mortician in this county, for 12 years a deputy coroner under T. M. Harris and for four years held the office myself. During my administration of the office of coroner I never caused

ANDY HOLMES to be buried in a potter's field the body of one single man, woman, or child; maintaining our own cemetery for this purpose. To me this is a significant fact. For your benefit, let me explain that the potter's field is maintained for those whose resources do not permit purchase of even the cheapest cemetery lot. Those interred there are nameless, the bleak graves designated solely by number, the records of which are kept at the County Hospital. If these records are lost, the numbered graves would never reveal their contents, and often loved ones or relatives make inquiries long after such burial. During my time in the office, and if elected I will continue the practice, of treating each indigent body as we would and should every dead human being.

During my 40 years of residence in Nevada County it has been my pleasure to make a legion of friends in Truckee and this area and if it is the desire of the voters that I be elected, I plan establishment of a Truckee office, allowing local cases to be handled locally by the W. H. Laity Funeral Home.

On a platform of a fair, economic and efficient administration, I submit my name to each of you.

RAIL WORKERS GIVE ENGLEBRIGHT FINE
BOOST FOR ELECTION

That the entire strength of the railroad employees is behind the candidacy of Congressman Harry L. Englebright in the coming election is indicated in the fine endorsement given the Nevada City legislator.

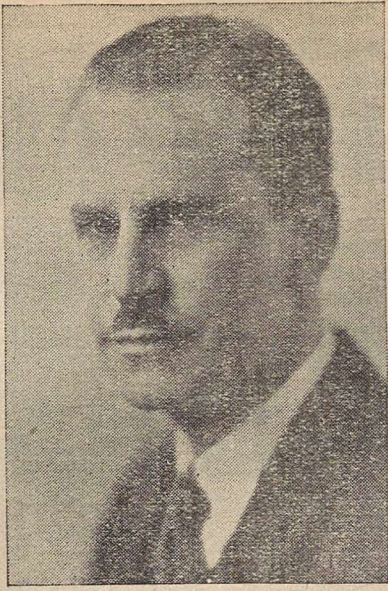

Englebright who has served this district faithfully and well during his incumbency seeks re-election to the post at the August 30 primary.

The endorsement by the Brotherhoods of Locomotive Engineers, Order of Railway Conductors, Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, Railroad Trainmen, Maintenance of Way Employees and Railroad Signalmen of America is in part as follows:

"Occasionally we have an opportunity to show our appreciation for outstanding merit on the part of those who enact the laws of our country. Such an opportunity is now presented to us in the candidacy for re-election of your U. S. Representative in Congress, Honorable Harry L. Englebright. Throughout his seven terms of distinguished service he has maintained an excellent record for ability, integrity and impartiality. We have found him on the right side of every major question, and while he is a powerful friend of all who toil in whatever field, he is equally fair to all legitimate interests. The welfare of all his people is his constant concern, and he has never failed our Brotherhoods. On his exceptionally fine record in Congress he merits the strong support of every voter in the Second District, regardless of party affiliations.

The letter to the officer and members of the various organizations also says:

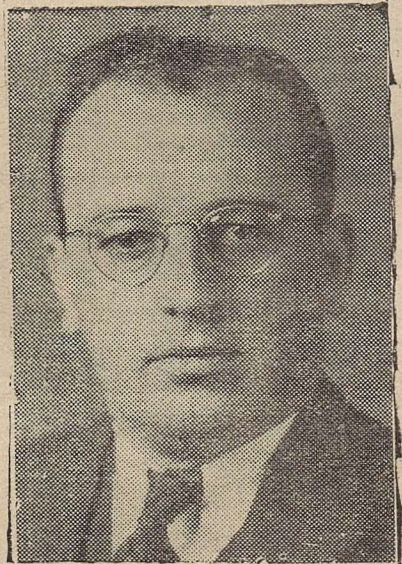

"We trust you will handle this matter with all expedition and efficiency to the end that all our members, their families and friends, as well as all other working men and women in the Second District, go to the polls and vote, at both the primary on August 30th and the general election in November, and return to Congress, our good friend Honorable Harry L. Englebright."

The endorsement was signed by the several officers of the above unions.

-California Political Review-

Politically Speaking

by John W. Dunlap
United Press Staff Correspondent

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 11.—(UP)—Not since the Townsend old age pension plan captured the imagination of the nation has anything been so widely discussed in the west as the California pension plan, the scheme to give everyone over 50 a $30 payment each Thursday morning.

In pace of the 186,000 signatures needed to place the initiative on the November ballot, zealous advocates of the plan secured in excess of 700,000. The million or more eligibles for the pension are spreading the gospel and many younger persons, seeing an opportunity of being relieved of financial burdens caused by dependents, are working hard for the plan.

Speculation is divided upon the probable course of the state Supreme Court, which has postponed until August 10 a decision on whether the plan is legal and should be placed upon the ballot. The court action was instituted by taxpayers who claim the title is deceptive and that the proposed payment of state pensions in state warrants would be illegal and violate the federal constitution.

In brief, the plan provides that every person over 50 years of age would receive each week 30 state pension warrants with a face value of $1 each. These would circulate as currency among all those who would accept. Once a week, each $1 warrant would have to be stamped with a 2-cent stamp purchased (in hard cash) from the State Pension Administrator. At the end of 52 weeks, the warrant would bear $1.04 worth of cancelled stamps and would be redeemable to the holder for cash.

RILEY GAINING IN CENTRAL PORTION
FOR SENATOR JOB

"Ray L. Riley will easily carry the eight central California counties," according to George H. Hauerken, Riley's Northern California campaign manager, returning for a ten-day survey.

Hauerken spoke before 27 meetings during his trip and conferred with the executives committees of the Riley for Senator Campaign in Santa Cruz, Kern, Tulare, Fresno, Madera, Merced, Stanislaus and Solano counties.

It is estimated that Riley will carry these eight counties by three to one over his two rivals, Philip Bancroft and Louise Ward Watkins.

The redemption fund would be provided by the money taken in from the sale of stamps, and the extra four cents would be used for administration and printing costs.

It was not long before California politicians sensed the tremendous possibilities in the plan. Congressman John Dockweiler, a Democratic candidate for governor, plumped for the idea and declared if it is enacted into law and he becomes governor, the measure will be "promptly and properly administered."

Sheridan Downey, Democratic candidate for U. S. Senator, is quoted as believing the people should be allowed to vote on the plan.

An obvious stumbling block in the path of the plan's success is the fact that such warrants eventually would have to be circulated as currency and become, in effect, legal tender. Because the states are not permitted under the Federal constitution to issue currency, the state Supreme Court might take the view the California Pension plan is for all practical purposes a violation of the constitution.

And if merchants would accept them, the warrants would be worthless.

It is highly probable that the pension plan's success and the growing number of initiatives which each election make the ballot a little longer, a little more complex, will evoke a clamor or a change in the law.

At the present, very few restrictions stand in the way of those who have from time to time turned the initiative, originally intended as a further safeguard to the Democratic form of government, to selfish ends.

It has been suggested that the law be strengthened in various ways. For example, some reform advocates would amend the rule covering petition signatures to require the appearance at the court house of those signing such papers.

There is another illustration in the pension plan's tremendous support that human nature changes very slowly. The plan, Utopian to the hilt, captures the fancy of those who find the idea of getting $30 every week, without so much as doing a hand's turn, pleasing indeed.

The idea of working and earning a living by the sweat of one's brow is not yet universal.

Proponents of the easy money school are apparently not much concerned with the plan's economic aspects. Naturally it gains ground because it is offered on a "what can you lose?" basis.

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 11.—(UP)—Shasta Dam, main unit of the Central Valley Water and Power project, may be dedicated by Secretary of the Interior Harold L. Ickes during a trip through California late this year.

Ickes indicated he had the proposal under consideration. He said a visit to California planned for next month would have to be postponed.

A. E. SNIDER TO SEEK NOMINATION FOR CONTROLLER POST

Impetus to the campaign of Alexander E. Snider, democratic candidate for state controller, has been given, it is reported from Los Angeles headquarters, through the organization of southern California newspapermen. Snider is editor and publisher of the San Fernando Sun. Los Angeles and Orange counties are strongly organized, and the movement is reported to be spreading.

Although Snider resigned as treasurer of the California Newspaper Publishers Association, a non-partisan organization, when he decided to become a candidate this has not affected ed the support of his associates, to whom he is widely known as one of the state's ablest and most successful publishers.

In this connection it is recalled the San Fernando Sun has been awarded trophies for excellence on several occasions. An editorial fight that Snider made against a recall movement in San Fernando brought him the 1934 award for the best editorial. In another year his paper had the best front page, and in 1935 he conducted the fight which revived the movement to restore the San Fernando Mission, and for this received the award for the "greatest service of any newspaper to its community."

This fight was made regardless of creed for Snider is a Presbyterian. In their resolutions endorsing him, fellow publishers and other organizations, point out that the state controller has become one of California's most important offices with the enactment of the State Lands Act. The controller, by virtue of this law is a member of the state lands commission which has full jurisdiction over all state lands, including the immensely valuable oil-bearing tidelands.

The point is emphasized that the controller should be a man of unquestioned strength of character and have a "real sense of public service." Snider is described as a man measuring up to this standard. Although a lifelong Democrat he has filed also on the Republican and Progressive tickets.

CLAIM OLSON WILL NOT GET PROGRESSIVE NOD

Despite Culbert L. Olson's attempt to split the Progressive vote in California, Raymond L. Haight is almost as certain as anybody can be of anything these days of carrying the nomination. It is said, in informed circles, that Olson cannot afford to withdraw sufficient voters from the Democratic registration to beat Haight on the Progressive ticket, since he must get the Democratic nomination to be in the final running.
